DEPARTMENT: Community Services  BY: Mary E. Williams  PHONE: 966-5315

RECOMMENDED ACTION AND JUSTIFICATION: Request approval and authorization to use the Mariposa County Transit Bus to transport to the Sesquicentennial (150) Celebration of Meadow Creek Ranch Bed & Breakfast on Sunday October 19, 2008 sponsored by the Yosemite Mariposa County Bed & Breakfast Association and the Chamber of Commerce. In addition request permission to use the Mariposa County insurance for this transportation for two trips to and from the event. Yosemite Mariposa Bed & Breakfast Association will be donating $70.00 to help defray the cost.

BACKGROUND AND HISTORY OF BOARD ACTIONS:

Board has approved and authorized use of the County Transit Bus and County insurance for various events in the past.

ALTERNATIVES AND CONSEQUENCES OF NEGATIVE ACTION:

Residence living in the Town area that are unable to drive would be denied participation, those who can drive would have the option to attend, however using the Transit Bus would reduce the environmental impact and make limited parking available to others. Some funds for historical or cultural events for week-ends and evening events are included in the F/Y 08-09 Transit Budget.

Dear Mary Williams,

September 24, 2008

The Yosemite Mariposa Bed & Breakfast Association & the Chamber of Commerce are sponsoring a Sesquicentennial Celebration of Meadow Creek Ranch. This historic house is 150 years old this year & has been the home of many pioneer families including many that still live in Mariposa. We request the use of the Mariposa County Transit buses on October 19 to make 2 runs to 2669 Triangle Rd. for this event that is between the hours of 2 – 5 PM. This will allow those unable to drive to attend. We will pay you $70, & will charge those using the bus $2 upon arrival.

Thank you,
Diana Wilcoxen
President of the B&B Association &
Current owner
