POLICY: EXHIBITS, DISPLAY CASES, AND BULLETIN BOARDS

STATEMENT OF PURPOSE

In many communities, the library offers the only readily available free space to display information. Items that publicize recognized community organizations and local events further the role of the library as the central source for civic, cultural, educational, and recreational information. Libraries are not required to make their bulletin boards, meeting rooms, and display cases available to anyone but once these areas are opened to outside groups, rules and policies must be applied fairly and equitably.

POLICY

A. DISPLAY CASE

Display space is available in the library’s exhibit case for educational, artistic, and cultural materials that promote interest in the use of books, library materials, and information or that share information about local art and cultural nonprofit groups. Preference will be given to exhibits that are timely and of general interest. Displays that are solely commercial in focus are not appropriate and are not allowed.

The library will take reasonable care to ensure the safety and security of items displayed, however, the library has no insurance to cover exhibit items and assumes no responsibility in the event of loss, theft, or damage. Exhibitors are encouraged to insure items of value and will be required to sign a form that releases the library from responsibility for loss, damage, or destruction. Items displayed may not include price tags. Items will be removed from the exhibit case or wall as scheduled by the County Librarian or designee. Display of items in the library does not indicate endorsement of the issues or events promoted by those materials.

B. BULLETIN BOARD

Display space for use of the Bulletin Board is available for public information to be disseminated. The Bulletin Board case is for educational, artistic, and cultural materials that promote interest in the use of books, library materials, and information or that share information about local art and cultural nonprofit groups. Bulletin boards may not be used for personal, commercial, or inappropriate uses. Posters and flyers displayed on the bulletin board may be no larger that 8.5 inches
X 14 inches. Items may be displayed for a maximum of three (3) weeks. Library staff will remove items that have expired or that have been posted for three (3) weeks.

All materials for posting or distribution must be presented to the County Librarian or designee for approval. Library staff will date and place items on the bulletin board or in the information rack. Distribution or posting of materials by the library is a public service and does not indicate endorsement of the issues, events, or services promoted by those materials. Materials left or posted without approval will be removed and discarded.
