RELEASE: Immediate

#580

Gov. George Deukmejian today issued the following Executive Order:

EXECUTIVE DEPARTMENT
STATE OF CALIFORNIA

EXECUTIVE ORDER D-27-83

WHEREAS, Martin Luther King, Jr. was a man with a strong abiding faith in God and a reverent love for America; and

WHEREAS, Dr. King through word and deed inspired us to perfect the principles of freedom, justice and equality upon which our great nation was founded; and

WHEREAS, the Civil Rights Act of 1964 and the Voting Rights Act of 1965 were achieved, in large part, by the efforts of Dr. King to convince America to live up to its most cherished ideals and apply them equally to all citizens; and

WHEREAS, the life and sacrifice of Martin Luther King, Jr. should be remembered and revered by present and future generations;

NOW THEREFORE I, GEORGE DEUKMEJIAN, Governor of the State of California pursuant to the authority vested in me by Government Code Sections 6700 and 19853 do hereby order that the third Monday of January in 1984 and each third Monday in January of succeeding years shall be a holiday for employees of the State of California in recognition of Dr. King's lasting imprint on our state and our nation.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of California to be affixed this 9th day of November 1983

Governor of California
