RESOLUTION NO. 93-207

RESOLUTION DESIGNATING MAY 12, 1993
AS
CALIFORNIA PROBATION, PAROLE AND CORRECTIONAL ASSOCIATION
(CPPCA) DAY

WHEREAS, the California Probation, Parole, and Correctional Association, founded in 1917, is the oldest and one of the largest state professional associations for corrections in the nation; and

WHEREAS, the California Probation, Parole, and Correctional Association serves to enhance correctional practices and to advocate for the highest standards of excellence for correctional practitioners; and

WHEREAS, the California Probation, Parole, and Correctional Association provides technical assistance to boards of supervisors, county executives, researchers, community-based organizations, other professional associations, the media and others on corrections issues; and

WHEREAS, the California Probation, Parole and Correctional Association supports a variety of organizations and charities through fund raising activities and social events; and

WHEREAS, the California Probation, Parole, and Correctional Association provides ongoing support for professionalism in corrections and for adequate and stable funding for the field; and

WHEREAS, the California Probation, Parole, and Correctional Association provides a statewide and one or more regional conferences each year which provide, in addition to high quality training, opportunities for exchanges of information and networking among practitioners from all areas of the state; and

WHEREAS, the California Probation, Parole, and Correctional Association has more than 2,700 members statewide, many of whom serve in our county, providing field and in-custody supervision of adult and juvenile offenders, investigations and reports to the court, crime and delinquency prevention, drug and mental health diversion and victim's assistance programs;

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, in recognition of the dedicated service of correctional professionals, the Mariposa County Board of Supervisors, a political subdivision of the State of California, hereby designates May 12, 1993, as CPPCA Day in Mariposa County.
