

A RESOLUTION RECOGNIZING BEVERLY BARRICK FOR HER SERVICE TO MARIPOSA COUNTY AS A MEMBER OF THE COUNTY BOARD OF SUPERVISORS

WHEREAS, BEVERLY BARRICK was appointed as a County Supervisor on July 20, 1981, by then Governor Jerry Brown, to fill the unexpired term for District I upon the death of Supervisor Carrol Clark; and

WHEREAS, BEVERLY BARRICK served the people of District I and was re-elected to a subsequent term; and

WHEREAS, BEVERLY BARRICK served as Chairperson of the Mariposa County Board of Supervisors in 1986; and

WHEREAS, BEVERLY was very active in the communities within District I (El Portal, Fish Camp, Midpines, Wawona, and Yosemite West); serving on the Town Planning Advisory Committee; and assisting with community projects, i.e.; community building and fire house in Midpines, an ambulance for El Portal, memo of understanding with the National Park Service allowing emergency medical personnel to act in each other's territory, a culvert for the Indian Cemetery, and a town plan for Fish Camp and Wawona; and

WHEREAS, BEVERLY'S interests not only included District I, but her support and service on the Mental Health Advisory Board; service on the Alcohol and Drug Abuse Advisory Board; her work with emergency medical services; her support of money for tourism and economic development for the County; support for fire suppression, law enforcement, and solid waste disposal; and

WHEREAS, BEVERLY was instrumental in developing stronger ties and lines of communication between the County and Yosemite National Park; and

WHEREAS, BEVERLY'S work with the Emergency Medical Services Agency showed great progress because of her extra effort; and

WHEREAS, BEVERLY BARRICK represented the County as a delegate to the San Joaquin Valley Supervisors Association, and as a member of the Board of Directors for the County Supervisors Association of California; and

WHEREAS, BEVERLY was instrumental in gaining retrocession of concurrent civil jurisdiction between the State of California and the Federal Government for private lands in Section 35, Wawona.

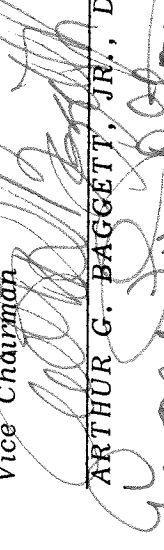

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED by the Mariposa County Board of Supervisors, a political subdivision of the State of California, that BEVERLY BARRICK is hereby recognized and commended for her service to Mariposa County and its citizens.
