A twenty (20) day period is allowed for the filing of a protest petition by any of the property owners located within 300 feet of the proposed home-based occupation within the TPAs of Fish Camp, Mariposa, or Wawona and 500 feet within the Coulterville TPA. The applicant is notified when the twenty day protest time period is complete. For properties that are within the Wawona TPA there is also a ten day requirement for National Park Service Review and approval.

Costs:

The applicant is required to submit a mailing cost fee to cover the cost of mailing the notice to the affected property owners located within 300 feet if within Mariposa or Fish Camp TPA and 500 feet if within Coulterville TPA of the proposed home-based occupation. This fee includes a $5 base fee, plus .50 cents per name on the affected property owners list.

Appeal Process:

If, following staff review of your application, your request for establishing a home enterprise or rural home industry is denied, you will be notified of such action in writing.
