RESOLVED by the Board of Supervisors of the County of Mariposa, State of California that:

WHEREAS Mariposa County is a Rural Sierra Mountain County with limited capacity to compete for Community Facility Grant Assistance; and

WHEREAS there is limited assistance available to small rural jurisdictions to develop Community Facility Programs; and

WHEREAS rapid growth, increased State and Federal Standards and complexity of facility assistance programs has increased the need for technical assistance to small rural jurisdictions such as Mariposa County; and

WHEREAS Assemblymen Thurman, Lehman, Perino and Costa have introduced a bill which would require the California State Department of Housing and Community Development to establish a Rural Community Facility Technical Assistance Program; and

WHEREAS AB 649 would appropriate $350,000 for purposes of supporting such a technical assistance program,

NOW, THEREFORE, this Board hereby determines and orders as follows:

1. The passage of AB 649 would be of direct benefit to small rural jurisdictions such as Mariposa County in meeting the needs for development of community facilities.

2. This Board is in full agreement and support with the contents of proposed Assembly Bill 649.

3. Copies of this Resolution are to be remitted to State Assemblymen Thurman, Lehman, Perino and Costa.
