BOARD OF SUPERVISORS - COUNTY OF MARIPOSA

RESOLUTION NO. 71-89

WHEREAS; there has come before us on this date, a request by an organization representing a segment of this community, and

WHEREAS; said request is one of reasonable encouragement and valuable necessity in the creation of an economic base for the Native American Indians of this County, and

WHEREAS; this County Government does recognize and encourages the need of this segment of our citizenry to participate in its business community, and,

WHEREAS; the Miwok/Paiute Tourist Development Association, Incorporated, has taken the leadership role in the promotion of programs for Native Mariposa Indians to develop a true sense of pride and contribution to community.

THEREFORE, LET IT BE RESOLVED that it be known to the Federal Office of Economic Opportunity in Washington, D.C. that this Board of Supervisors does wholly request and support the funding of the Economic development tourism "feasibility study" submitted to that Agency on September 17, 1971.
