RE: Signs for the Stanislaus National Forest

RECOMMENDATION AND JUSTIFICATION:

Waive encroachment permit fees for the Stanislaus National Forest to place five motorized travel restriction signs along specified County roads with entrances to the Stanislaus National Forest.

Signs will be placed on Greeley Hill Road (between Coverse Road and Smith Station Road), Holtzel Road (north of intersection with Ernst Road), Dogtown Road (east of Dogtown Road), Schilling Road (south of intersection with Dogtown Road) and Bricceburg Road (at Forest boundary).

Stanislaus National Forest has been required to place these signs at all forest entrances to notify the public that motorized travel restrictions are in effect across the forest. It is anticipated that additional signs will be placed in the future as funds become available.
