RECOMMENDED ACTION AND JUSTIFICATION:
Approve the Office Technician I/II job description, set the salary for the Office Technician I at the same monthly salary as the existing Office Technician classification ($2,492.53-$3,029.69/grade 160), set the monthly salary for the Office Technician II at $2,741.74-$3,332.60/grade 161); assign both classifications to the SEIU bargaining unit; eliminate the single class Office Technician position and assign all allocations in this classification the title of Office Technician I. Further, eliminate the Executive Secretary classification and assign all allocations in this classification the title of Office Technician I.

During a review of the 2006 reclassification request of the Executive Secretary position in the Public Works Department to an Executive Assistant, it had become evident that the Executive Secretary classification had evolved but not to the degree that was being requested. Staff did find, though, that the scope of work that was performed in this classification often encompasses greater independence in decision-making and action than originally contemplated for this class. Staff revisited and conducted an even more in-depth review of the Executive Secretary classification with an expectation to develop a flex class to accommodate the ever-changing needs and growth of larger departments. Because the essential functions of the Executive Secretary and Office Technician classes are very similar and the salary for both is the same, it was determined that it would be more realistic to eliminate the Executive Secretary class, create a Office Technician I/II flex class, assign the title of Office Technician I to the Executive Secretary allocations (two allocations – one is filled and one is unfilled), as well as assign the same title to all allocations that have the single-class Office Technician title.

BACKGROUND AND HISTORY OF BOARD ACTIONS:
During the final discussion of the 2006 reclassification requests, the Board adopted Resolution No. 07-120 which provided direction to staff to review the Executive Secretary classification for further development.

ALTERNATIVES AND CONSEQUENCES OF NEGATIVE ACTION:
If the Board desires, direct staff to review another alternative to this action, however, this solution is the most practical.

DEFINITION
To provide a variety of administrative services in support of the administrative, fiscal and program areas of the assigned department; to perform highly responsible and complex clerical support duties; to direct and supervise the work of others in a lead capacity as assigned; and to perform related duties and responsibilities as required.

Office Technician I: Employees in this classification receive general supervision and perform administrative detail work. Incumbents are expected to perform at a high level of independence and responsibility with in-depth knowledge of the programs, policies, and procedures of the department and work unit where assigned.

Office Technician II: Employees in this classification perform a variety of administrative tasks with minimum supervision. This classification performs work where the director has delegated a substantial amount of administrative detail and non-routine work. The duties of the Office Technician II are auxiliary to the work of the director and the scope of the responsibilities reflect the scope of the director’s responsibilities. This position differs from the Office Technician I classification in that the Office Technician II typically works directly for the director of a large department that consists of divisions within that department.
