MARIPOSA COUNTY BOARD OF SUPERVISORS

MINUTE ORDER

__________________________

TO: STEVE HAYES, Tourism Assistant
FROM: MARGIE WILLIAMS, Clerk of the Board
SUBJECT: TWO OUT-OF-STATE TRAVEL REQUESTS

__________________________

THE BOARD OF SUPERVISORS OF MARIPOSA COUNTY, CALIFORNIA,

ADOPTED THIS Order on October 22, 1996

ACTION AND VOTE:

- Steve Hayes, Tourism Assistant, advised of two out-of-state travel requests. Chairman Balmain advised that he felt the Board should review and give direction concerning the requests as he did not feel they were routine requests. (M)Parker, (S)Stewart, Board waived its rules requiring 72 hours agenda noticing to consider the travel requests, finding the matter was not known about at the time the agenda was prepared and direction is necessary prior to the next Board meeting due to the deadline to register for the conference/Ayes: Reilly, Balmain, Stewart, Parker; Excused: Pickard. Discussion was held concerning the travel requests. (M)Parker, (S)Stewart, Res. 96-439 adopted approving out of state travel requests for the WACVB conference and Media trip/Ayes: Reilly, Balmain, Stewart, Parker; Excused: Pickard.

cc: Ken Hawkins, Auditor
    File
Memo

Date: October 18, 1996

To: Mariposa County Board of Supervisors
   Patti Reilly, Supervisor, District 1
   Doug Balmain, Supervisor, District 2
   Robert C. Stewart, Supervisor, District 3
   Garry R. Parker, Supervisor, District 4
   Robert Pickard, Supervisor, District 5

From: Steve Hayes, Tourism Assistant

Subject: Out of state travel requests.

Please find the following requests for out of state travel with information about the travel.

I plan to bring these to the Board requesting approval in the AM, Tuesday, 10/22/96 because there are deadlines for registration fees due near the end of the month. Consequently I am providing this packet for your review prior to the meeting.

The WACVB conference was listed in last years budget and I believe it was mentioned during the recent budget hearings. The trip to Media trip organized by the State Department of Tourism was not involved in previous budget discussions. There are current funds budgeted which would cover both of these travel requests.

I think that the opportunity for training at the WACVB meeting is significant. And I think that the cost of the Chicago/New York trip is understandable since all the costs except for parking and meals are included. Additionally, considering that an ad in Sunset runs approximately $3,000, if we can get one editorial or story in a major trade or consumer publication the trip cost can be justified.

I am honestly not enamored with the travel itself. I anticipate working too hard to enjoy much of it.

Dear Colleague:

In February 1996, the California Division of Tourism (CalTour) visited New York City and Washington, D.C. on a media blitz, leading a delegation of 28 representatives of California destinations, attractions and sightseeing companies. In February 1997, we will return to New York City, and add Chicago to the itinerary.

New York City is home to most of the major national magazines, travel guides and television networks, some of the most notable daily newspapers in the U.S., plus numerous top-producing freelance travel writers. And Chicago continues to be an important market for California. The media blitz is a cost effective way to access the top consumer and travel trade media outlets and to promote positive coverage for California’s diverse destinations, attractions, activities, and events. This past winter our events attracted 100 media in New York City, and 30 in Washington, D.C.

The press event will consist of an evening reception and marketplace on Tuesday, February 25, 1997 in New York City, with a similar program scheduled for Chicago on Thursday, February 27, 1997.

To ensure that the event is produced properly, CalTour, through our marketing firm, will sub-contract with a reputable public relations firm to plan, coordinate and produce the California press reception and marketplace. The firm we are in the process of selecting will have an extensive travel industry client list and be well connected with the New York and Chicago media.

We hope you are able to take advantage of this CalTour sponsored media event in New York City and Chicago, and please feel free to contact me if you have any questions.

Sincerely,

Fred Sater

Media Blitz to New York City & Chicago
Fact Sheet

What: California reception and marketplace exclusively for New York and Chicago area consumer and travel trade media (print and broadcast).

When: February 24-28, 1997

Where: At a yet-to-be-named hotel, restaurant, or comparable venue, in New York City and Chicago.

Why: To gain favorable publicity for California in hopes of increasing visitation to the Golden State.

Cost: $3,000*
The basic program costs include:
- Round trip air transportation to/from California gateway cities; and between New York City and Chicago.
- Hotel accommodations (two nights in NYC and two nights in Chicago), single occupancy, where applicable.
- Participation in California reception and marketplace.
- Services of a public relations firm throughout.
- An up-to-date New York City and Chicago area media list.

Benefits: The California media blitz is an inclusive program that offers you the opportunity to publicize your product under the “California umbrella” directly to key consumer and travel trade editors and writers (print and broadcast), plus qualified freelance travel writers in New York City and Chicago. As a member of the State's official team, you will gain greater visibility in these important media markets. The format will include an evening reception and marketplace on Tuesday, February 25 in New York City, and an evening reception and marketplace on Thursday, February 27 in Chicago, plus free time for individual appointments in both markets.

A. Effective Marketing for Small Bureaus

This hands-on workshop for small bureaus will focus on how to effectively market your area with limited resources and how to design brochures and collateral materials that present a positive and inviting message.

Presenter: Jane Maas, Chairman Emeritus, Earle Palmer Brown

Jane Maas’ appearance presented by American Express and ASAE/Association Management

B. Identifying New Accounts/Making Effective Presentations

Learn the process of discovering new accounts in good economic times and the best techniques to use in making effective presentations to those prospective accounts. This session is based on hundreds of hours of customer focus group feedback gathered from decision-making meeting planners.

Presenter: Steve Steinhart, President, Steinhart and Associates

C. The First 100 Days as a New CEO

The first 100 days on the job as a new CEO of a bureau is a critical time during which many first impressions are made and relationships established. Our panel members, newly minted CEOs from small, medium, and large organizations, will discuss what they think are the most important tasks for the new CEO. This session will be taped and transcribed into a WACVB white paper for new CEOs.

Panelists: Joe D’Alessandro, Executive Director, Portland Oregon Visitors Association; Richard Garret, President and CEO, East King County (WA) Convention & Visitors Bureau; Karen Jordan, President and CEO, International Association of Convention & Visitor Bureaus
Moderator: Marc Chapdelaine, President and CEO, San Mateo County Convention and Visitors Bureau

Open Evening (on your own or put an informal group together)

A FEW GREAT IDEAS FOR FRIDAY EVENING!
1. Take the free chartered bus and try your luck at Spirit Mountain Casino, one of Oregon's premiere gaming facilities. Along with a variety of gaming opportunities, you can have a spectacular "all-you-can-eat" buffet for $8.95 or enjoy fine dining at reasonable prices in the new Legends restaurant.
2. Hop on MAX to the Rock Bottom Brewery for an evening of fabulous food and terrific micro-brews; then walk around downtown and shop or hit some of the nightclubs in Old Town. Portland was just chosen as one of the ten most "hip" cities in the nation for its live music scene by Swing magazine.
3. Walk across the street from the hotel to the Lloyd District and enjoy many great restaurants on Northeast Broadway and don't forget there is always great shopping at the Lloyd Center Shopping Center.

IF YOU HAVE A CAR OR WANT TO GO BY TAXI:
4. You can visit the Nob-Hill Area on Northwest 21st and 23rd. Great restaurants, art galleries, and boutique shopping.
5. How about a brew pub and movie house combined? Visit the Hawthorne District in southeast Portland with its quirky restaurants, secondhand stores, boutiques, and the old Baghdad Theatre that is a movie house and brew pub.
6. If you are interested in antiques, visit the Sellwood area for interesting restaurants and great antique stores.

“Case Studies”

Most CVBs face similar problems in their communities, such as bed-tax raiders, political issues, or natural disasters. Our case study process will begin by dividing our attendees into three separate budget category groups to discuss equivalent case studies and suggest steps to address the issues. After the refreshment break, the entire group will convene in a general session for a panel presentation to demonstrate how small, medium, and large CVBs would solve identical,
real-world problems.

The goal is to show how different sized CVBs handle issues that can arise in any community.
Each group will be asked to present solutions to each case study. See case studies in next column.

A. Workshop - CVBs with Budgets of Less Than $500,000
B. Workshop - CVBs with Budgets of $500,000 to $1 Million
C. Workshop - CVBs with Budgets of More Than $1 Million

Case Study #1
A newly elected city council majority is considering adding two percent (2%) to the hotel room tax with the proceeds going to the general fund, and has quietly suggested that the current CVB funding might be reduced if the industry objects to their proposal.

How should the CVB respond to this situation?

Case Study #2
Four community has been afflicted by a string of negative events that the national media exaggerated on slow news days. The negative events include:

1) A wildfire that burned thousands of acres of forests near your community.
2) A random act of violence against a foreign tourist.
3) An outbreak of an unknown ailment similar to Legionnaire disease at a convention meeting in your city.

How should your CVB minimize the negative PR?

Case Study #3
The National Fur Coat Dealers’ annual convention meets each year in your city with registration, housing, and convention services supplied by your bureau. For the past five years, animal rights activists have led increasingly vocal protests against the event occurring in your city and tax dollars being used to assist in hosting the event.

How should the CVB staff handle this sensitive and divisive issue?

3:00 p.m. - 3:15 p.m.  Refreshment Break

3:15 p.m. - 4:15 p.m.  General Session
“Case Study Presentations”

After the refreshment break, the entire group will convene in a general session for a panel presentation to demonstrate how small, medium, and large CVBs would solve identical, real-world problems.
A representative from each of the workshop groups
(based on budget category) will comprise the panel.
6:30 p.m.  Evening Event  “Country Faire”

Be transported back 500 years to the time of King Arthur and the Knights of the Round Table for a country faire complete with a roadhouse serving “grog and grub.” Then stop by many of the faire booths and have your fortune read, or attempt to toss rings over the castle gargoyles, watch a joust, and participate in many interactive events. Lots of fun prizes, good music, and companionship.

Hosted by Portland Oregon Visitors Association and Destination Marketing Services by BASS

SUNDAY, NOVEMBER 10

9:00 a.m. - 10:30 a.m.  Breakfast (served)

Idea Faire Award Presentations

Join your colleagues and learn which ideas were deemed the best in this year’s Idea Faire. Remember, entries are judged at the Annual Meeting by member attendees. Recipients will be recognized and presented with plaques at the Awards Breakfast.

Presentation  “Visitor Industry Awareness Programs”

Susan Bladhholm will share a step-by-step method of developing a visitor industry awareness program within your own community that both educates the local community to the benefits of the visitor industry and provides a warm and welcome atmosphere for visitors. Two other panelists will share their bureaus’ success in creating and implementing community awareness programs.

Presenters: Susan Bladhholm, Sunstone Marketing and additional panelists
