RE: Support of SB 1607 (McCorquodale)
Schools: Formation of New Community College District

Dear Senator McCorquodale:

Please be advised that at the June 21, 1994, Board meeting, the Mariposa County Board of Supervisors took action by Resolution Number 94-250 to support your SB 1607, legislation relating to the formation of a new community college district.

The passage of this important legislation will provide an opportunity for individuals residing in the Mariposa County Unified School District and the Yosemite Union High School District to seek and achieve a higher education. In addition, a local college district would reduce the time and expense while traveling to an institution of higher education; therefore, reducing safety hazards and increasing college enrollments for rural communities.

We appreciate your leadership in authorizing this legislation.

Respectfully submitted,

GARRY R. PARKER
Vice-Chairman of the Board of Supervisors
