

MARIPOSA COUNTY RESOLUTION NO. 84-160

A RESOLUTION ENDORSING AN "OLD FASHIONED FOURTH OF JULY CELEBRATION" IN MARIPOSA COUNTY

WHEREAS, a citizens committee for the Preservation and Perpetuation of an "Old Fashioned Fourth of July Celebration" has been formed to organize this celebration on July 4, 1984, at the Mariposa County Courthouse and Courthouse Square; and,

WHEREAS, the Chairman of this citizens committee has informed the Board that he has letters from residences and businesses surrounding the Courthouse that there are no objections to the proposed activities;

BE IT HEREBY RESOLVED by the Mariposa County Board of Supervisors, a political subdivision of the State of California: to endorse the placement of a banner as advertisement of proposed activities, to grant permission to block Bullion Street at Ninth and Tenth, to allow access to restrooms in Courthouse and access to outside electrical outlets at Courthouse.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED by the Mariposa County Board of Supervisors to wholeheartedly support the concept of an "Old Fashioned Fourth of July Celebration" and strongly urge all residents of Mariposa County to participate in the festivities.
