IN REPLY REFER TO:

BAILMENT AGREEMENT

This agreement is by and between the National Park Service, U.S. Department of the Interior, at Yosemite National Park, hereinafter called "Park," and Mariposa County Chamber of Commerce, hereinafter called "Chamber."

The Park agrees to lend a certain stage coach to the Chamber on either June 10 and 11, 1977 or June 17 and 18, 1977, which alternative dates are at the discretion of the Chamber, under the following terms and conditions.

1. The parties hereto shall inspect the coach at Wawona before and after it is lent as described above.
2. The parties hereto agree that the replacement value of the coach is in the amount of Twelve Thousand Dollars, ($12,000.00).
3. The Chamber will be permitted to draw the coach from Wawona to Mariposa by a team of horses, but at the discretion of the Chamber, may transport the coach by truck or trailer for all or part of the distance.
4. The Chamber will return the coach to the Park on or before June 20, 1977.

EXHIBIT "A"

5. The Chamber assumes liability during the time the coach is in its bailment, and will cause insurance to be maintained.
6. The Chamber agrees that repair or replacement of any damage incurred during the said bailment shall be done at the Wagon Shop of the Park, at the expense of the Chamber.
7. If the coach is damaged, or not returned to the Park on or before June 20, 1977, the Chamber will agree to liquidate damages to the Park in the amount of Forty Dollars ($40.00) per day until the coach is repaired or returned, but not to exceed 33 days.
8. A Condition Precedent to the execution of this agreement is approval by the Mariposa County Board of Supervisors.

Superintendent,
Yosemite National Park

Kay Olsen, President

Mariposa Chamber of Commerce
