BOARD OF SUPERVISORS - COUNTY OF MARIPOSA

RESOLUTION NO. 69-88

WHEREAS, in Mariposa County there is a group of ladies endowed with great kindness, friendliness and the spirit of helping to build and keep up the morale of persons who are confined to the John C. Fremont Hospital, called the Hospital Volunteers, and

WHEREAS, the Hospital Volunteers are celebrating the 11th anniversary of their organization on September 9, 1969, and

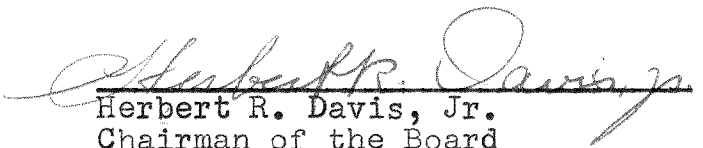

WHEREAS, the Hospital Volunteers have served those confined in the Hospital with refreshments, a variety of added comforts and performed personal errands, and

WHEREAS, this Board is aware of the many hours spent by the members of the Hospital Volunteers in community projects by assisting with the Immunization Clinics of the County Health Department, the Blood Bank, the Tuberculosis Xray Unit, and in many other worthwhile community health projects requiring many long hours,

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED that the Board of Supervisors of the County of Mariposa does hereby commend the Hospital Volunteers for their excellent and willing assistance to the communities of the County and congratulates the Hospital Volunteers on their 11th Anniversary of their organization.
